DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 8, 9, 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. In these claims "the base" "the separable top layer" and "the line of separation" do not have proper antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3 and 5-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Whipp, US #5,792,536.
3. Whipp discloses separable tags having upper and bottom layers 4 and 6 and neck portion 10 (Figure 1). A series of tags linked together in a roll but separable at each neck is shown in Figure 4. The neck is capable of being connected to a container. Upper layer 6 is connected to lower layer 4 by adhesive 8 (Figure 3).

Art Unit: 3611

4. Layers 4 and 6 may be made of paper or plastic (column 2 lines 26-65) and may be imprinted with indicia (column 3 lines 47-52).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Whipp.

7. Whipp does not specifically describe a release coat, however, this is common in the art of adhesive, as in layer 14 of Whipp. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use such a release layer between layers 4 and 6 if it is desired to use an adhesive that is not pressure sensitive.

8. Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Whipp in view of Kinne, US #3,863,369.

9. Whipp does not teach a line cut between the bottom portion and the neck, however this is considered to be an equivalent of a perforation. Kinne teaches line cut 14 for allowing separation of the parts of a label. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to utilize such a line cut instead of a perforation as an equivalent alternative.

10. As is discussed above, the top layer may be peeled from the bottom layer through adhesive 8.

11. Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Whipp in view of Heuser, US #2,953,865.

12. Whipp does not teach separating the tags from each other by perforation, however this is well known in art as shown by Heuser. Heuser teaches a series of labels separated by perforations 11. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to connect the series by perforations instead of a base sheet so that the labels may be separated from each other without exposing the adhesive.

Conclusion

13. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US patents 5704649 and 6357798 are cited as of interest.
